distribution under the latest approved methods of the War Department. During the encampment, Captain Cousins, aided by members of his company, will operate a camp canteen, the proceeds to be for the benefit of the new full dress uniform fund. He has been in Gordonsville making the preparations for the canteen, and is ready to open on Tuesday afternoon.

There will be nearly 2,900 men in camp, as the whole infantry branch of the State service has been ordered on duty. The full quoto of fifty-eight enlisted men and three officers will not be carried by many companies, but all will have the minimum prescribed by the War Department.

The camp promises to be one of the most interesting ever held by the Virginia troops. It is planned to give instruction in every branch of the field service, including night attacks and a sham battle between two forces. All of the companies have been shipping their blank ammunition to the camp for this event.
